RECOMMENDATIONS

Submit with this application two letters of recommendation: one from a person in a teaching and learning environment who is familiar with your academic potential and one from a non-traditional/non-academic person who could also speak to your potential as an Honors student.

APPLICATION ESSAY

Submit with this application, on a separate paper, an essay of 250-500 words, which explains why you want to be admitted to the Honors Experience. Include in your statement information about yourself, your educational plans, and your career plans.

Students will be admitted to Honors English Composition 1001 after a review of the essay submitted with the Honors application by the English Chair or other designated English faculty member. Students who submit an essay that demonstrates writing skills below Honors expectations will be advised to take a regular section of ENG 1001. After completing that class, student can then submit a second writing sample and be admitted to ENG 1002 if improvements are made.

I hereby certify that the information provided in this application is true and accurate.
