

Memorandum of Understanding between Indiana Wesleyan University's
Associate Degree to Bachelor's Degree Programs
And
Cincinnati State Technical and Community College

INTRODUCTION

Cincinnati State Technical and Community College and Indiana Wesleyan University's (IWU) College of Adult and Professional Studies (CAPS) and School of Nursing (SON) agree to work collaboratively in order to provide educational opportunities for the currently enrolled and potential students of their institutions. This collaboration requires a commitment by both institutions to facilitate the transfer of Cincinnati State Technical and Community College associate degree graduates into the appropriate IWU baccalaureate degree completion program without jeopardizing the mission and goals of either entity.

I. Benefits

This Memorandum of Understanding (Understanding) defines a structure through which articulation on all levels can be supported thereby allowing for maximum transfer of credits for Cincinnati State Technical and Community College students earning an associate degree, and providing for a seamless admission into one of CAPS' or SON's baccalaureate degree completion programs.

II. Accreditation Status

IWU is accredited by the Higher Learning Commission,*(HLC). IWU is also accredited by the State Department of Public Instruction of Indiana, National Association of Schools of Music, National Council for Accreditation of Teacher Education, Indiana State Board of Nursing, the Commission on Collegiate Nursing Education (CCNE), the National Accrediting Agency for Clinical Laboratory Science, American Medical Association, the Council on Social Work Education and Council for Accreditation of Counseling and Related Educational Programs.

IWU will maintain its institutional accreditation with the HLC. Of its bachelor's completion programs currently subject to this Understanding, the Bachelors of Science in Nursing is and will remain programmatically accredited through the CCNE or other equivalent accrediting body recognized by the U.S. Department of Education.

Cincinnati State Technical and Community College is currently accredited by the HLC. Cincinnati State Technical and Community College will maintain its institutional accreditation with the HLC.

III. Elements of this Understanding

A. Admissions Practices

CAPS' and SON's admissions requirements for the baccalaureate degree completion program are outlined at <http://indwes.edu/Admissions/Adult-Graduate/> and the contents of this site are incorporated into this Understanding by this reference as they exist on the effective date and as they may be revised in the future at IWU's sole discretion. In general, Cincinnati State Technical and Community College students will be eligible for admission to a CAPS or SON baccalaureate degree completion program, based on meeting the following admission criteria:

1. Proof of high school graduation or GED certification.
2. Production of official transcripts from all previous colleges or universities attended.
3. Prior completion of at least sixty (60) semester credit hours (45 for BSW programs) from a regionally accredited college or university; sixty (60) transferable credits are required to begin the core. Forty-five (45) transferable credits are required to begin the BSW core. Up to forty (40) semester credit hours may be met by equivalent education assessed and approved through IWU's portfolio process as described in the University's catalog.
4. Cincinnati State Technical and Community College student seeking enrollment into CAPS' Bachelor of Science degree with a major in Accounting must show evidence of the equivalent of three (3) undergraduate credits of mathematics or statistics.
5. In the event of a conflict, the admissions requirements published at <http://indwes.edu/Admissions/Adult-Graduate/> shall control.

B. Acceptance and Application of Credits

Courses completed through Cincinnati State Technical and Community College may (will) transfer under this Understanding subject to, but not limited to, the following requirements:

1. Must be 100-level or above.
2. Must be a grade of "C" or higher.
3. A maximum of fifteen credit hours of identified equivalent courses may be transferred into the major being pursued at IWU.
4. All credits are accepted as semester credits. Quarter credits are converted to semester credits using the two-thirds conversion ratio.
5. Students must meet admission requirements specific to each CAPS or SON program detailed at <http://indwes.edu/Admissions/Adult-Graduate/>.
6. Academic credit recommendations based on knowledge equivalency examinations must be issued by an American Council on Education recognized testing entity (i.e. CLEP, DANTES, etc.)
7. Must be academic, credit bearing courses and not avocation, recreational, pre-college, remedial, prior learning/assessment or developmental in nature.

Depending on the student's major, up to a maximum of ninety-four (94) credit hours may be transferable to the corresponding CAPS or SON baccalaureate degree completion program. CAPS and SON general education requirements may be included in the credits transferred. For further information, refer to IWU's Transfer of Credit Policy at indwes.edu/catalog.

CAPS and SON offer baccalaureate degree programs in Business, Education, Liberal Arts, and Nursing. Specific baccalaureate degree programs available both online and onsite through CAPS and SON for this Understanding are identified in Appendix A.

C. Tuition and Financial Aid/Scholarship

The role of financial aid at IWU is to make a quality Christian education affordable to all eligible students who apply. Financial aid information for CAPS and SON students at IWU can be found at <http://indwes.edu/Financial-Aid/Adult-and-Graduate/>.

D. Responsibility of Indiana Wesleyan University

1. IWU will provide academic advising services to transferring Cincinnati State Technical and Community College students.
2. The trademarks and serviced marks owned by Cincinnati State Technical and Community College may not be used by IWU without expressed written permission.
3. IWU will provide Cincinnati State Technical and Community College transfer materials such as brochures, fliers, curriculum guides, academic checklists, and/or procedural checklists. Transfer literature will be updated on an annual basis.

E. Responsibility of Cincinnati State Technical and Community College

1. Cincinnati State Technical and Community College will provide the opportunity for IWU representatives to meet with Cincinnati State Technical and Community College students on an ongoing basis.
2. Cincinnati State Technical and Community College will assist IWU in the distribution of updated degree and transfer materials to alumni and current students.
3. The trademarks and serviced marks owned by IWU may not be used by Cincinnati State Technical and Community College without expressed written permission.
4. Cincinnati State Technical and Community College will present to their students IWU transfer options as they do any other private universities with which they have similar agreements.

F. Joint Responsibility

1. Both institutions will designate an individual to serve as a liaison for the purpose of managing this Understanding.
2. Both institutions agree to notify each other of any changes in its accreditation status.
3. Any written materials published and distributed by Cincinnati State Technical and Community College and/or IWU which specifically reference this Understanding or make any general representation of each other's institution, must be approved by each respective party prior to use.

G. Implementation of the Understanding

Cincinnati State Technical and Community College will notify its divisions of this Understanding. Cincinnati State Technical and Community College will add CAPS and SON baccalaureate degree completion programs to its published lists of partnering universities with transfer agreements.

IWU will work with each division to develop a strategy of providing faculty and staff with the information and materials essential to informing Cincinnati State Technical and Community College students and alumni of the transfer options offered through this Understanding.

H. Annual Evaluation

After each academic year representatives from Cincinnati State Technical and Community College and IWU will review processes and practices between the two (2) institutions to determine each institution's satisfaction with the Understanding. Each institution will work in good faith to modify their policies, procedures, etc. to accommodate the changing needs of their partner.

I. Term and Modification

This Understanding will be in effect from the Effective Date and continue indefinitely unless and until terminated by either party in accordance with the paragraph III-J. Either party reserves the right to call for a review of the Understanding for the purpose of making changes or modifications. Termination of this Understanding may occur by either party with a one hundred eighty (180) day written notification to the other. Further, either party may terminate this Understanding immediately upon substantial breach by the other party.

Notwithstanding, upon expiration or termination of this Understanding for any reason, students previously accepted by or admitted to IWU will continue to receive the benefits contemplated by this Understanding, provided they stay continuously enrolled and make satisfactory academic progress.

J. Indemnification

Each party agrees to indemnify and hold the other, its officers, directors, agents, employees, and trustees harmless from and against any and all tort liability, claims, actions, and causes of action, losses, damages, or expenses caused or arising out of the act(s) and/or omission(s) of itself, its agents, and employees incident to this Understanding.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties have entered this Understanding this 9th day of October 2017 ("Effective Date") and do each hereby warrant and represent that they have all necessary and appropriate authority to execute to the Understanding and implement plans of action and procedures necessary to effect this Understanding.
