The following checklist is provided for your convenience. This sheet addresses the process for application to serve as an Instructor in the Cincinnati State College Credit Plus Program when requesting to offer a college course at the high school location.

Applicant should submit:

- _____ Instructor Approval Request Form
- _____ Resume
- _____ Transcripts (These can be copies of transcripts in your District HR file.)

Instructor applicants should review the Ohio Board of Regents credential requirements carefully and be sure their application materials prominently document those credential standards.

Upon receipt of these documents by the Office of Off-Campus Programs, the packet is sent to the Faculty Coordinator in the appropriate Cincinnati State academic division. Based on the academic qualifications of the applicant and the materials submitted, the Faculty Coordinator will determine the applicant's eligibility and the candidate will be notified of next steps.

Applicants should return completed forms (by mail or email) to:
