2021 Distinguished Alumni Award Recipient

Henrietta Hill AARTS '07; TWEC '96

Henrietta Hill's life and work epitomizes the core values included in Cincinnati State's strategic plan: potential, innovation, collaboration, equity, and experiential and lifelong learning.

A native of Cincinnati, Henrietta began her 35-year-career in the telecommunications and information management industries when she joined Cincinnati Bell in 1968 as a directory assistance operator.

She saw the future, however, and pointed her career toward information management, and how the rapidly evolving digital world would come to influence every aspect of how we communicate with one another.

When two Cincinnati Bell subsidiaries were merged to form what would become the Convergys Corp., Henrietta went to work for the new company. Her roles at Convergys evolved from procedure analyst and technical writer (she earned a Technical Writing and Editing Certificate at Cincinnati State in 1996) to programmer analyst and problem resolution manager for major customers throughout the United States and in Tokyo, Japan.

Henrietta retired from Convergys in 2003, but for her, a leisurely retirement did not compute.

Henrietta would earn an Associate of Arts degree with an emphasis on education from Cincinnati State in 2007. Meanwhile, she continued and expanded her dedication to being a volunteer for the community, her church, and the college.

In addition to her 20-plus years on the Cincinnati State Alumni Board, including as president, Henrietta's volunteer work includes service as an instructor for Envision Children, a tutor in the Winton Woods School District, an active member of the Forest Park Senior Citizens group, and a Eucharistic minister, lector, and facilitator for the Corpus Christi Catholic Church.

In 2014, Henrietta was inducted into the Cincinnati Recreation Commission's Senior Citizen Hall of Fame. In 2018, she received the Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. Keep The Dream Alive Award.

"For me, Cincinnati State was very much a place to grow, and if you reached out, there was help if you needed it," said Henrietta.

Henrietta has a daughter (Niedra Whitehead), a son (Larry Hill, named after her late husband), and three grandchildren.

She has carried the values Cincinnati State reinforced not only into her career and family life, but also into her volunteer work.

"Part of the reason for volunteering is to serve, but in the case of the Alumni Board, it's also a hope that students will see us and want to join and give back to the college," Henrietta said.

2021 Honorary Degree Recipient

Delores Hargrove-Young

Delores Hargrove-Young is the vice chairwoman for d.e. Foxx & Associates, Inc. She serves as a key strategic leader, ambassador, and advisor who is responsible for driving the structure that facilitates the success of the approximately 1,700-employee firm.

Prior to stepping into that role, she was a founder, and later president and COO of XLC Services, one of d.e. Foxx's cornerstone brands. Founded in 1986, XLC provides warehouse management solutions, as well as manufacturing, distribution and R&D services for Fortune 500 corporations nationwide.

"I've always recognized that we have two customers, the customers we supply and also our employees," said Hargrove-Young. "It's always been important that we not only exceed our external customers' expectations, but also that we treat employees the way we want to be treated."

Under her leadership, XLC earned a number of business awards, including the Cincinnati USA Supplier Diversity Circle of Excellence, Eli Lilly & Company Supplier of the Year, and the P&G Minority Supplier of the Year.

A native of Jacksonville Florida, Ms. Hargrove-Young also has long been a prolific and selfless community leader in Greater Cincinnati.

"I guess that's how I'm wired. While growing up, my family was economically challenged but I didn't realize it because it was not uncommon to see an extra plate at our table," she said. "My father would say 'you don't need to have a lot to give back.'"

She currently serves as chair of The Greater Cincinnati Foundation, vice-chair of development for The Urban League of Greater Southwestern Ohio, and is on the board of Artswave, the Cincinnati Symphony Orchestra, the University of Cincinnati, and others.

Her past community service is also extensive. She has received many awards for her service, including the YWCA of Greater Cincinnati Career Woman of Achievement, Enquirer Woman of the Year, Girl Scouts of Western Ohio Women of Distinction Award, and the Metropolitan Award.

Hargrove-Young has three children, four grandchildren, and one great-grandchild.

"Education is absolutely priceless," she said. "It's more important now than ever. Learning is lifelong."
