

International Student Budget Sheet

To be completed by the student

Students do not submit financial documents prior to admission. Once admitted, the student scans and uploads this form with all supporting documents using International Student Enrollment Form (ISEF). Students should keep original documents for the visa interview.

You must provide documentation from a bank official authorized to certify a minimum amount in United States Dollar (USD) in assured financial resources based on the program of study to cover the entire program.

Funding Information

The total support necessary for your first year of study must be documented and available. The support necessary for subsequent years of study must be reasonably attainable and documented through bank statements, employment letters, tax returns, investments, etc.

If any funds are being provided by a sponsor, the sponsor must complete the Affidavit of Sponsorship provided. If personal funds are used, bank statements must be attached in your name and be enough for all years of study, not just the first year.
